ENCLOSURE 1 (CONT'D):

LEGEND:

Pt. # 1. Railroad Station: main railroad station in Tashkent.

2. Underground Plant: located in the block bordering Ulitsa Shevchenko (Pt. 3) and an unknown street. Over-all area was approximately 300 sq. m. Area was completely enclosed by a wooden fence two meters high along Ulitsa Shevchenko and a wall, two meters high, along the unknown street. Visible over the fence was a slightly pitched roof of a small building three meters high. [redacted] several chimneys to be dispersed throughout the area below the fence level because smoke, color unknown, was observed rising. The area contained no visible entrances, and [redacted] there were no unusual sounds or noises. [redacted] walked alongside that portion of the area on Ulitsa Shevchenko [redacted] noticed two military guards armed with sub-machine guns patrolling the area on the inside along the fence and wall.

[redacted] told him that it was an underground military plant. [redacted] no further information.

3. Ulitsa Shevchenko: cobblestone, eight meters wide.# 4. Park.

5. Uz-Bum Kombinat (Uzbekskiy Bumazhnyy Kombinat): approximate location of plant in Shumilova, a town on the outskirts of Tashkent. [redacted] this plant was producing peacetime paper and cellulose products. Further details were unknown

6. Chirchik: a comparatively new city, founded in 1935, rapidly growing and almost an exclusive industrial city at least 10 sq. km. in area. [redacted] could not identify the city's plants by name but stated that they included metallurgical, textile and agricultural machinery plants. In addition, a big hydro-electric plant was constructed [redacted] Locations or further details were not available [redacted]
